
Ratio < 1: partition construction is faster. All failures remain in the denominators.

Three timing rounds describe machine variation; no confidence interval or significance claim.